

- TIP -

Give clear precise information

Jana Huffman ↳ share ↳

Nancy Moore -

Always keep an open mind

Thinks outside the box

Ivy Nelson

BE PROUD of your ORGANIZATION

IT IS THE BEST

RECRUITING TOOL!

When recruiting men to be mentors, avoid the words "commitment" and "relationship". Instead just state the timeframe (until the end of the school year) and "friendship" instead of "relationship".

Barbara Nordstrom
VSD Foundation Lunch Buddy

Run Background Checks through

WATCH for Free.

EMPOWER Shelley

Keep a Sense of Humor 😊

it always helps!

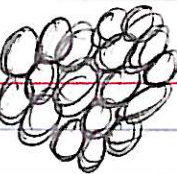

CAROL THOMPSON

Janell Watt

- Make a personal connection

- VolunteerUp! Great online database to help manage your volunteer schedule

NATALIE WOOD

Invest in screening and training up front - share the skills that are needed for success.

o

♥ YOUR volunteers.
they will know it
& ♥ you back ↓
Sherry Braga - FVRL

Al Flouy

Find a good colleague
Assistant - paid or volunteer.

Make vols feel valued feel connected feel informed.
Charlean Hays Hughes

Dede

Continual reinforcement and acknowledgement
of their good work
and the importance of their role.

it's important to match personalities when picking work partners

Jerry Hatcher

HEIDI HIAT, yuca

- ① Be genuine & sincere
- ② Be open-minded

Stephanie

1. Have ice breaker games Erkert available.
2. Have inspirational quotes on walls.
3. Make sure the youth or volunteers know who to reach out to for help.
4. Bring nature "In" (Flowers & greenery) it helps reduce stress.

360-397-2130
~~360-397-2130~~ ext: 5133

Volunteers appreciate even very small actions that show gratitude.
My best advice is to spend 5 minutes a day expressing thankfulness and mentioning specific things you have noticed.

Kris Henniksen

Find capable people
and let go of too much control!

Kelley Hibbes